PAC KITCHEN: Our PAC kitchen is undergoing more remodeling and storage space is very limited. While we appreciate your donation of kitchenware, we cannot store all the miscellaneous items dropped off in the kitchen. If you have been searching for a favorite casserole dish, Tupperware, spoons, Pyrex bake ware, etc. perhaps you left the items after one of our many parish potluck functions. Please come reclaim them as soon as possible. Call Jo Lynn Kohutek at 259-1311 with any inquiries about commercial-grade items that are still needed for the kitchen. All items that are not claimed will be considered a donation and sold during the parish garage sale.

LA COCINA: La cocina del PAC será remodelada una vez mas y el espacio de almacenamiento es muy limitado. Agradecemos su donación de utensilios de cocina sin embargo no podemos guardar todos los artículos que se dejan en la cocina. Si usted ha estado buscando una cazuela, Tupperware, cucharas, artículos de hornear Pyrex, etc. tal vez se le olvido en la cocina después de una venta de comida o evento especial en el PAC. Por favor pase por la cocina del PAC para recuperarlos lo antes posible. Favor llame a Jo Lynn Kohutek al 259-1311 para cualquier pregunta acerca de los elementos de calidad comercial que todavía son necesarios para la cocina. Todos los artículos que no sean reclamados se consideran una donación y vendidos durante la venta de garage parroquial.

Often embryos not used in a first attempt at pregnancy are frozen and stored for future attempts. This also poses a serious risk to their lives. When their parents have as many live-born children as they want, or abandon their efforts to have a child through IVF, the remaining embryos are considered “excess” or “spare.” Some are thrown away as laboratory waste, while others are abandoned indefinitely in a frozen state or slated for experimental purposes. The current debate about killing embryonic human beings on a large scale to “harvest” their embryonic stem cells arose partly because IVF clinics produced so many “spare” embryos, creating a terrible temptation for researchers to find a “use” for these human beings no longer wanted by their parents.

~ United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Life-Giving Love in an Age of Technology (Nov. 2009)

Con frecuencia, los embriones que no fueron utilizados en el primer intento de embarazo son congelados y preservados para utilizarlos en intentos futuros. Esto plantea también un serio riesgo para sus vidas. Cuando los padres llegan a tener todos los hijos que desean, o abandonan sus esfuerzos para concebir un hijo por medio de la FIV, los embriones restantes son considerados como “sobrantes” o “de repuesto”. Algunos son descartados como desechos de laboratorio mientras otros quedan abandonados indefinidamente en estado de congelación o pasarán a ser utilizados en experimentos. El debate actual sobre la matanza en gran escala de algunos seres humanos en embrión para “cosechar” sus células madre embrionarias surgió, en parte, porque las clínicas dedicadas a la FIV produjeron muchos embriones “de repuesto” lo cual, para los investigadores, creó la gran tentación de encontrar algún “uso” para estos seres humanos que habían sido rechazados por sus padres.

NEW WEBSITE IN SPANISH FOR COUPLES:

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) launched www.PorTuMatrimonio.org, a new Web site in Spanish for couples. The Website, completely in Spanish, is the Hispanic version of the popular www.ForYourMarriage.org, although it is not a translation of it, said Alejandro Aguilera-Titus director for Hispanic Affairs of the Secretariat of Cultural Diversity in the Church and coordinator of the project. The initiative responds to the bishops’ current priorities on marriage and cultural diversity with special emphasis on Hispanics.

“PorTuMatrimonio.org is a space to inspire, help and urge Spanish-speaking couples to live more fully their marriage relationship,” Aguilera-Titus said. “The idea is to help them be happy couples, committed to their vocation.”

Advice, stories, testimonials and other resources to liven up the daily life of couples are found on the site along with valuable information about common challenges for couples and how to overcome them in healthy and respectful ways.

La Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de Estados Unidos lanzó el nuevo portal Web www.PorTuMatrimonio.org. El portal, completamente en español, es la versión hispana del popular sitio de Internet www.ForYourMarriage.org, aunque no es una traducción del mismo explicó Alejandro Aguilera-Titus, director para Asuntos Hispánicos del Secretariado de Diversidad Cultural y coordinador del proyecto.

“Por tu Matrimonio es un espacio para inspirar, ayudar y exhortar a las parejas de habla hispana a vivir más plenamente su relación matrimonial”, afirmó Aguilera-Titus. “La idea es ayudarlos a ser parejas felices, comprometidas con su vocación”.

En el portal se pueden encontrar consejos, historias, testimonios y recursos para animar la vida matrimonial de cada día, así como información valiosa sobre los retos más comunes para las parejas y cómo éstos se pueden superar de manera sana y respetuosa. ¡Anímate pues a descubrir con nosotros todo lo que puedes hacer Por Tu Matrimonio visita www.portumatrimonio.org.

A EUCHARISTIC ROSARY AND BENE-DICTION will be celebrated Mar. 6 from 10am to noon at St. John Vianney Parish in Round Rock.
